10:05 2 business with Google, had industrial printing

10:05 3 used any other on-line advertising services?

10:05 4 A. Yes, sir.

10:05 5 Q. What were those?

10:05 6 A. The ones I can recall are Yahoo,

10:05 7 which was Overture, Ah-Ha. I think that may 10:05 8 have been the extent of the -- the extent of 10:05 9 them that I can recall.

10:05 10 Q. Okay. And what type of business

10:05 11 is Industrial Printing engaged in?

10:05 12 A. Printing services.

10:05 13 Q. What type of printing services?

10:05 14 A. Printing on three-dimensional

10:05 15 substrates.

10:05 16 Q. And is that the same type of

10:05 17 business that Hanson Industries is engaged

10:06 18 in?

10:06 19 A. I'm not sure of the full extent

10:06 20 of what Hanson Industries does.

10:06 21 Q. Does Hanson Industries do

10:06 22 printing on three-dimensional substrates?

10:06 23 A. I'm not sure if they do at this

10:06 24 point.

10:06 25 Q. And how about CLRB Hanson, does to use the Google AdWords program; correct?

A. Can you ask that question again,
please.

Q. Yeah, sure.

11:29 2 a button there where you can go cost previous

11:29 3 day, previous seven days, 30 days, 60 days,

11:29 4 and all-time costs.

11:29 5 Q. Okay. And yours defaults to the 11:29 6 current day?

11:29 7 A. Yes, sir.

11:29 8 Q. And so your practice is then you

11:29 9 look at that current day information;

11:29 10 correct?

11:29 11 A. Yes.

11:29 12 Q. And then what do you look at on 11:29 13 that current day information?

11:29 14 A. What our costs are associated

11:29 15 with internal review of what a client may 11:30 16 tell me that they've received for orders or

11:30 17 flow of leads, et cetera.

11:30 18 Q. Okay. And then what causes you

11:30 19 to implement the pause?

11:30 20 A. Lack of capacity within the 11:30 21 plant. The costs -- we've met our targeted

11:30 22 return on investment at that point and 11:30 23 there's no need to continue expending money.

11:30 24 Q. Anything else?

11:30 25 A. That's pretty much it.

1 B. Hanson

11:42 2 typically two.

11:42 3 Q. And the other one was still

11:42 4 active; correct?

11:42 5 A. Yes.

11:42 6 Q. And under the contract

11:42 7 decorating campaign, there were four ad

11:42 8 groups paused. Do you see that?

11:42 9 A. Correct.

11:42 10 Q. And then how many total ad

11:42 11 groups were there, if you can recall, under

11:42 12 that particular campaign?

11:43 13 A. Well, I think there's only two.

11:43 14 I mean, under which campaign? Contract

11:43 15 decorating?

11:43 16 Q. Yes, sir.

11:43 17 A. I think there's only five.

11:43 18 There's the active and then the paused.

11:43 19 There is not --

11:43 20 Q. Okay. So -- I'm sorry, I

11:43 21 interrupted you.

11:43 22 A. There is only the active plus

11:43 23 the pause. So your account -- the team there

11:43 24 may be multiple ad groups, for example. But

11:43 25 they're all running.

1 B. Hanson

11:43 2 Q. And is it your practice to pause
11:43 3 ad groups or campaigns?

11:43 4 A. Campaigns.

11:43 5 Q. And why's that?

11:43 6 A. Because -- campaigns would stop
11:43 7 the whole campaign. We either feel
11:43 8 comfortable with the results so we turn off
11:43 9 the campaign to limit our cost that day. For 11:44 10 example, we pause -- we pause -- I have 11:44 11 clients in CLRB and Hanson and SECOA paused
11:44 12 on the weekends. We don't run campaigns on 11:44 13 the weekend.

11:44 14 Now Google has a feature where 11:44 15 you can run on a 12- and 24-hour clock, where 11:44 16 you can turn on your campaign. Each 11:44 17 individual campaign can be tailored to run on 11:44 18 the 15-minute based on a 12- and a 24-hour
11:44 19 clock tied to your -- your time zone. So we 11:44 20 have it marked as central standard time and 11:44 21 we run our -- I have -- Hanson Industries has 11:44 22 asked me to run their campaigns approximately 11:44 23 65 percent of the time. That's a feature
11:44 24 that Google's added so you don't have to go
11:44 25 in and on all the time turning it off and on.

But we still go in to monitor the -- the -- that's a good feature that they have. I'm surprised they haven't figured out this cost
yet. So we don't go over the cost.

Q. And in this instance you'd paused certain ad groups, do you see this?

A. Yes.

Q. Rather than campaigns. What -- what caused you to pause just those ad groups?

A. They were ineffective ad groups that were in there that we may still use in the future, but rather than deleting the ad
group, because once you deleted the ad group you have to rebuild the ad. We just paused it all together and maybe go back to it and maybe not. But we have found that those certain ad groups don't generate the click-through rate.

We try to maintain a
click-through rate of greater than 6.5 percent. And sometimes we do and sometimes we don't.

Q. And when you say "we," do you

12:05 2 (Exhibit No. 31, Google AdWords

12:05 3 campaign management, 7/8/05, bearing

12:05 4 Bates Nos.~P0114 through P0115, marked

12:05 5 for identification as of this date.)

12:06 6 Q. And that's a document, Google

12:06 7 AdWords campaign management, July 8, 2005; is 12:06 8 that correct?

12:06 9 A. Yes, sir.

12:06 10 Q. And all these are for -- all

12:06 11 these ones that we've marked, that is, 27,

12:06 12 28, 29, 30, all of those are for CLRB Hanson;

12:06 13 is that correct?

12:06 14 A. Yes, sir.

12:06 15 Q. And are all the campaigns that

12:06 16 are shown for CLRB Hanson?

12:06 17 A. Yes, sir.

12:06 18 Q. And Exhibit 31 is the same type

12:06 19 of document I just described -- I just 12:06 20 mentioned, 27, 28, 29, and 30?

12:06 21 A. Yes, sir.

12:06 22 Q. Then the next document is

12:06 23 Exhibit 32, which is a one-page document

12:06 24 Bates numbered P0116.

12:07 25 (Exhibit No. 32, billing

B. Hanson

of days in the month, multiplied that by the daily budget, do you know whether that amount would exceed the total cost for that particular number of days?

A. I do not.

Q. So is it your belief, based on your interpretation of your legal relationship with Google, that during the period specified, 7/31/02 through 11/2/05, that you paid $16,507.27 more than you should have?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And there are some instances, for example, looking at page 43 of 56 or Bates No. 0494 --

A. Okay.

Q. -- there are some instances where the percent column, the overcharge percentage, the second to the right, is in excess of 20 percent; do you see those?

A. Yes.

Q. For example, February 24, 2005, it's listed as being 51 percent?

A. Yes.

1 B. Hanson

13:34 2 A. I'm looking at the 13:34 3 correspondence between -- on Bates stamp
13:35 4 P0331 to P0332.

13:35 5 Q. Okay. Why don't we mark that 13:35 6 next in order so everybody knows what we're 13:35 7 talking about. That looks like it's part of 13:35 8 a longer e-mail string, Mr. Hanson. Why 13:35 9 don't we just mark the whole string which 13:35 10 begins at 329.

13:35 11 A. Okay.

13:35 12 MR. BIDERMAN: We'll mark as
13:35 13 next in order page 329 through 333.

13:35 14 (Exhibit No. 39, document
13:35 15 beginning with e-mail, AdWords support,
13:35 16 April 1, 2005, 7:47 p.m., bearing Bates
13:35 17 Nos. 329 through 333, marked for
13:35 18 identification as of this date.)

13:35 19 Q. Exhibit 39. And it begins with 13:35 20 an e-mail, AdWords support, April 1, 2005,
13:35 21 7:47 p.m.

13:36 22 And your referencing a specific
13:36 23 e-mail from Tina; is that right?

13:36 24 A. That's correct.

13:36 25 Q. And could you show us where that

1 B. Hanson

13:36 2 is?

13:36 3 A. Well, right on Bates stamp 0329,
13:36 4 forwarded messages from AdWords support.
13:36 5 "Hello, Brett" is the heading, dated April 1,
13:36 6 2005. "Thank you for your e-mail" -- you
13:36 7 want knee read it?

13:36 8 Q. No. I see it. So, in other
13:36 9 words, did you contact Tina in some way and 13:37 10 say, give me some information?

13:37 11 A. Yes.

13:37 12 Q. What did you say to her?

13:37 13 A. I think that's on the string
13:37 14 further in the -- if we look at Bates stamp
13:37 15 P0330.

13:37 16 Q. Yeah.

13:37 17 A. At the top of that document,
13:37 18 "Hello." It's dated -- looks like my reply
13:37 19 to Tina. It says, "I need the daily budget
13:37 20 versus the daily charges first quarter last 13:37 21 year for both accounts as soon as possible."

13:37 22 Q. Okay. And both accounts, you
13:37 23 mean --

13:37 24 A. SECOA and CLRB.

13:37 25 Q. Okay. And why did you want that

13:37 2 information.
13:37 3 A. To verify that there were
13:37 4 overcharges.
13:37 5 Q. And do you note that on 13:37 6 March 31, for example, Tina had communicated 13:37 7 to you that, and I'm looking on page 330, "As 13:38 8 I previously mentioned, charges accrued over 13:38 9 20 percent of your set daily budget will be 13:38 10 credited to your account at the end of the 13:38 11 month."
13:38 12 Do you see that?
13:38 13 A. I do.
13:38 14 Q. And have you -- do you have any 13:38 15 understanding about whether, in fact, charges
13:38 16 over 20 percent of your set daily budget are 13:38 17 in fact credited to your account?
13:38 18 A. I do not.
13:38 19 Q. In other words, you don't know
13:38 20 one way or the other whether they are?
13:38 21 A. I don't believe they are.
13:38 22 Q. Okay. And why is that?
13:38 23 A. Because I have with some 13:38 24 certainty tied out that the charges that were 13:38 25 reflected on the reports from Google servers

1 B. Hanson

13:38 2 to what was charged to our credit card match.

13:38 3 Google's own reports from their servers

13:38 4 verify my information.

13:38 5 Q. And when you say, "Google's own

13:38 6 reports," you're referring to what exhibit?

13:39 7 A. Exhibit 36.

13:39 8 Q. Okay. And that's the -- that's

13:39 9 the summary of information that's on your

13:39 10 AdWords page; correct?

13:39 11 A. Right. The only information on

13:39 12 Exhibit 37 -- 36, excuse me, that was added

13:39 13 was the subtraction from the daily budget to

13:39 14 the daily cost to come up with -- so we

13:39 15 took -- I took the numbers that Google

13:39 16 provided.

13:39 17 Q. Right. And, again, you haven't

13:39 18 tried to do that with the invoices, have you?

13:39 19 A. I have not.

13:39 20 Q. And looking at the 13:39 21 correspondence from Tina again on page 331,

13:39 22 on March 30, 2005, I'm looking at this e-mail

13:39 23 correspondence, it says, among other things

13:40 24 she states to you, "In general, we try to

13:40 25 keep your daily cost fluctuation to no more

1 B. Hanson
13:40 2 than 20 percent above your daily budget. And 13:40 3 we make sure that within the 30-day billing
13:40 4 period you are never charged more than the 13:40 5 number of days in that billing period times
13:40 6 your daily budget."

13:40 7 Do you see that?

13:40 8 A. Yes.

13:40 9 Q. And did you understand her to be 13:40 10 communicating to you that in fact under the 13:40 11 Google AdWords program you could be charged 13:40 12 up to 120 percent of your daily budget per 13:40 13 day?

13:40 14 A. Well, I dis -- I mean, I
13:40 15 disagreed with the e-mails that I -- that 13:40 16 I -- I disagreed with this -- this point.
13:40 17 There's one e-mail that's not -- that's not
13:40 18 in this document from one of Google's
13:40 19 representatives that said, well, if you don't 13:40 20 like our budget -- if you don't like the 13:40 21 budget running over at where you're at,
13:40 22 adjust your budget downward by 20 percent,
13:41 23 then you won't go over whatever your magical
13:41 24 number is. So I --

13:41 25 Q. So is it fair to say that at

1 B. Hanson

13:41 2 some point in time you did understand that
13:41 3 whether you agreed with it or not, Google's
13:41 4 practice under the AdWords program was to
13:41 5 charge up to 120 percent of your daily
13:41 6 budget?

13:41 7 A. Can you ask that question again,
13:41 8 please.

13:41 9 Q. Is it fair to say that in some 13:41 10 point in time you did understand that,
13:41 11 whether you agreed with it or not, Google's
13:41 12 practice under the AdWords program was to
13:41 13 charge up to 120 percent of your daily
13:41 14 budget?

13:41 15 A. Yes.

13:41 16 Q. And when did you come to that 13:41 17 understanding?

13:41 18 A. Well, as I'm becoming frustrated
13:41 19 with my -- with my dialogue with Google, my 13:42 20 exchange of e-mails back and forth.

13:42 21 Q. Okay. And was it sometime in 13:42 22 2002 that you came to that understanding?

13:42 23 A. No. Quite to the contrary. If 13:42 24 you look at Exhibit 36, which is an 13:42 25 interesting point in itself, if you look on

1 B. Hanson

13:42 2 page P0507, overcharges don't start, really,

13:42 3 there's not a significant accumulation of 13:42 4 daily problems until -- there's a small one

13:42 5 in 2005, $50.52. There was one -- that was 13:42 6 in the first quarter of 2003.

13:42 7 The second quarter of 2003

13:42 8 there's --

13:42 9 Q. Sorry, can you slow down. What

13:42 10 page are you on?

13:42 11 A. Oh, I'm sorry. P0507, the last

13:42 12 page.

13:43 13 Q. Okay.

13:43 14 A. It really didn't become a huge

13:43 15 concern from a dollars standpoint until the 13:43 16 first quarter -- second quarter of 2004.

13:43 17 Q. And is that when you first

13:43 18 raised it with Google?

13:43 19 A. Right around -- right around

13:43 20 that point, I believe, yes.

13:43 21 Q. And is it fair to say that at 13:43 22 that point in time, during the course of 13:43 23 those communications --

13:43 24 A. We had never gone over budget

13:43 25 before then. At that point it was like every

1 B. Hanson

14:42 2 screen from the Google report.

14:42 3 Q. And was it the daily Google

14:42 4 report?

14:42 5 A. I don't remember.

14:42 6 Q. And in response to this, if you

14:42 7 look at page 5 of 33, actually, 6 of 33,

14:43 8 there's -- I'm sorry, 4 of 33, there's an

14:43 9 e-mail that begins, "Hello, Brett. It was a

14:43 10 pleasure speaking with you today. I've

14:43 11 included additional information below

14:43 12 regarding how our system deals with

14:43 13 overdelivery charges."

14:43 14 Do you see that?

14:43 15 A. Yes.

14:43 16 Q. And then going to 5 of 33, you

14:43 17 were told, "We try keep your daily cost

14:43 18 fluctuation to no more than 20 percent above

14:43 19 your daily budget."

14:43 20 Do you recall receiving that

14:43 21 information?

14:43 22 A. I don't remember.

14:43 23 Q. Any reason to doubt that you

14:43 24 didn't receive this e-mail?

14:43 25 A. I don't doubt it, no.

1 B. Hanson

14:43 2 Q. And then there you were also 14:43 3 told, "We make sure that within a 30-day
14:43 4 billing period you are never charged more
14:43 5 than the number of days in that billing
14:44 6 period times your daily budget."

14:44 7 Do you see that?

14:44 8 A. I do see that.

14:44 9 Q. And is it fair to say that by 14:44 10 this time, March of '05, you understood that 14:44 11 at least Google's practice was to charge no
14:44 12 more than 20 percent above your daily budget?

14:44 13 A. Must have been, yes. If I
14:44 14 misspoke before, I'll correct my answer to 14:44 15 approximately March.

14:44 16 Q. And then if you look at page 4
14:44 17 of 33, at the top there's an e-mail from 14:44 18 AdWords support, "Hello, Brett." It states,
14:44 19 "I understand that you accrued charges over
14:44 20 your daily budget again yesterday. I
14:44 21 apologize for any inconvenience caused by 14:44 22 this overdelivery. At this time, please feel 14:45 23 free to reduce your daily budget in order to 14:45 24 decrease the overall charges you accrue this 14:45 25 week. However, as I previously mentioned,

1 B. Hanson

14:49 2 A. Not that I can recall.

14:49 3 Q. And if you look to -- under 14:49 4 page 96 -- pardon me, tab 96. If you turn to 14:49 5 page 5 of 41. There's an e-mail from you

14:49 6 dated Thursday, 13 January 2005. "Hi,

14:49 7 Bethanie. Can you please check our

14:49 8 overcharges for our daily budgets by ads and

14:49 9 account CLRB Hanson Industry LLC, customer

14:50 10 ID: 934-396-2830."

14:50 11 Do you see that reference?

14:50 12 A. Yes, sir.

14:50 13 Q. And what prompted you to write

14:50 14 that e-mail?

14:50 15 A. It appears I wrote it because we

14:50 16 were being overcharged based on the daily

14:50 17 budget.

14:50 18 Q. And how did you conclude that?

14:50 19 A. From Google's reports.

14:50 20 Q. Looking at the daily reports

14:50 21 that you've described earlier today?

14:50 22 A. Yes, sir.

14:50 23 Q. And after -- and then you'll see

14:50 24 the response, which is -- appears on the next

14:50 25 page, 4 of 41. Do you see that? And in the

1 B. Hanson

14:54 2 Q. And then she described in that 14:54 3 phone call that Google would charge up to 14:55 4 120 percent of your daily budget on a given 14:55 5 day but never charge more than the amount of 14:55 6 your daily budget times the number of days in 14:55 7 a month?

14:55 8 A. I don't believe that that's what
14:55 9 it says in that e-mail.

14:55 10 Q. Did she explain that to you on 14:55 11 the phone?

14:55 12 A. I don't -- I don't recall.

14:55 13 Q. Do you --

14:55 14 MR. BIDERMAN: Withdraw that
14:55 15 question.

14:55 16 Q. Do you recall --

14:55 17 MR. BIDERMAN: Withdraw that
14:55 18 question.

14:55 19 Q. At some point in time someone
14:55 20 from Google told you, did they not, that you 14:55 21 would be charged up to 120 percent of your 14:55 22 daily budget for a given day but that your 14:55 23 total charges for a month would not exceed 14:55 24 your daily budget times the number of days in 14:55 25 that month?

14:55 1 B. Hanson

14:56 2 A. They may have mentioned -- they

14:56 3 may have told me that, but I didn't agree to

14:56 4 it, nor do I ever remember agreeing to such 14:56 5 terms.

14:56 6 Q. So, in other words, it was

14:56 7 communicated to you, but you didn't agree to 14:56 8 it; is that what you're saying?

14:56 9 A. Yes.

14:56 10 MR. BIDERMAN: Let me just see

14:56 11 if I've got any other e-mails to mark.

14:57 12 Q. And then going back to tab 96

14:57 13 again.

14:57 14 A. Okay.

14:57 15 Q. There's a e-mail to you at the 14:58 16 bottom from AdWords support dated March 4,

14:58 17 '05. Do you see that?

14:58 18 MR. LEVY: What page?

14:58 19 MR. BIDERMAN: I'm sorry.

14:58 20 Page 1 of 41.

14:58 21 A. Yes.

14:58 22 Q. Okay. And then this is an

14:58 23 e-mail from someone named Tina. Do you

14:58 24 recall that, dealing with Tina P.?

14:58 25 A. Vaguely.

1 B. Hanson

15:15 2 summary, January to November 2005, of

15:15 3 CLRB Hanson Industries, bearing Bates

15:15 4 Nos. 440 through 451, marked for

15:15 5 identification as of this date.)

15:15 6 MR. BIDERMAN: Will be

15:15 7 Exhibit 46.

15:16 8 Q. And what does Exhibit 46

15:16 9 reflect?

15:16 10 A. The billing summary from Google.

15:16 11 Q. Of whose account?

15:16 12 A. CLRB Hanson Industries.

15:16 13 Q. Okay. And what was the purpose

15:16 14 of generating this document?

15:16 15 A. Just to show the billing for the 15:16 16 year period of December '04 -- from 15:17 17 January '05 through November 8th.

15:17 18 Q. And why did you generate that?

15:17 19 A. I'm not sure.

15:17 20 Q. And there's some handwriting,

15:17 21 looks like it appears on the first page,

15:17 22 little dots next to these numbers. Does that 15:17 23 reflect any work on your part?

15:17 24 A. I don't know.

15:17 25 Q. For example, were you trying to
